

I have enjoyed working at Talita Cumi. The kids are always happy to see you. They crave your attention and just want to hang out and play with you. The staff have been helpful since the first day I started working there, and it's great to see how much they love the kids. I really enjoyed going to the Christmas party. It was so much fun to see a few of the younger kids getting to celebrate Christmas for the first time. We had the chance to watch Juan de Dios open up his presents. He was so excited, he didn't even finish opening his presents, he was just running around hugging everyone and showing them his presents. It was amazing to see how thankful all of the kids were that night.

Thank you so much for the opportunity to work at Talita Cumi. It has been a blessing.

Thanks,
Tio Grant
